

MMCGME

The Metro Minnesota Council on Graduate Medical Education* (MMCGME) was formed in 1980 as a non-profit 501(c) corporation. The MMCGME mission is to meet the community needs for physicians by collaboratively advancing quality graduate medical education through centralized state of the art information systems, uniform cost effective administrative processes, core curriculum, and common policies that promote member organizations' teaching programs in a competitive health care environment.

MMCGME Services

MMCGME Services maintains the mission of strengthening collaboration with GME through centralized state of the art information systems, critical administrative processes, core curricula, and universal policies that promote member organizations' teaching programs.

We partner with the Graduate Medical Education (GME) Sponsoring Institutions & Affiliated Hospitals to:

- Facilitate outstanding educational experiences in Metro Minnesota for future primary care & specialty physicians
- Encourage collaboration to optimize training of future physicians
- Support high quality GME in a fiscally responsible manner
- Maximize revenues & minimize costs for the provision of GME

2nd Annual GME Coordinator Conference
Ramada Mall of America
Bloomington, MN

Tuesday, April 17, 2012

Preliminary Program

	Afternoon
Goal To provide an education networking forum for Minnesota Graduate Medical Education (GME) community and beyond.	12:00 Wheel of Fortune – Lori Payne and Lisa Wichman Lunch (provided)
Morning	1:00 ACGME Update – Karla Hemesath Coordinators play a critical role in the accreditation of residency and fellowship programs. The ACGME is changing the accreditation process for all training programs which will require shifts in management of some program operations, data collection and trainee information. This session will provide a brief overview of the anticipated changes and offer suggestions on how coordinators and program directors can work proactively to manage information and processes that will be important in future accreditation.
8:00 Registration &amp; Continental Breakfast	1:30 Break
8:25 Welcome and Opening Remarks – Troy Taubenheim	1:45 StrengthsQuest™ Assessment – UMN Organizational Development The Clifton StrengthsFinder assessment is an online tool that identifies your top five talents and provides resources for setting goals to help you put your strengths to work. Participants will receive a personal access code for the assessment via email and will be instructed to take the assessment one week before the conference . Please print assessment results and bring to the conference.
8:30 We are ALL in this Together – Lori Payne, Facilitator Panelists will showcase scenarios of a trainee in crisis; identifying who gets involved in the process resolution, e.g. coordinator, chief resident, program director, and/or outside resources.	3:45 Now What? So What! – Steve Barberio Our guest facilitator will synthesize the day and help participants carry the day's findings forward into their respective workplaces. This will be a fun and interactive wrap up to the conference.
9:15 Break	4:45 Conference Evaluation – Heather Woeste
9:30 New Innovations Live Webinar – Steve Reed A video webinar update on new and upcoming enhancements to the Resident Management Suite (RMS) software.	5:00 Adjourn
10:30 Bridging the Generation Gap – Mary Barraclough For the first time in history, four generations now share the workplace: Traditionalists, Baby Boomers, Generation Xers, and Millennials. It is important to recognize each generation's traits and influences in order to understand their perspectives and how workplace generation gaps arise. Strategies for solutions lie in this understanding and the debunking of stereotypes.
11:30 Future Challenges of GME – Troy Taubenheim Discussion on GME funding and potential challenges that face GME due to state and federal funding reductions.

Objectives

At the conclusion of this learning activity, participants will be able to:

- Better assimilate enhancements to RMS (New Innovations) and fully utilize the software's functionality.
- Define the characteristics, attitudes, and values of each generation.
- Gain an understanding of how generations collide and learn strategies to bridge the gap.
- Work collaboratively and remain positive in this ever-changing environment.
- Understand the major differences between the current accreditation model and the new system.
- Recognize the importance of managing trainee and faculty information on a regular basis.
- Identify several practical tasks to implement now in preparation for the new accreditation system.
- Discover your top five talent themes and develop skills to apply those talents.
