

Automatic vs Manual Matching Tip Sheet

Automatic matching occurs when the evaluator and the subject in the case of people evaluations or the Evaluator is evaluating a rotation. This requires putting the faculty evaluators on the block schedule for the same rotations as the trainees.

Manual matching occurs when the program coordinator is hand selecting the Evaluator and the subject.